New traces on Kurt FISCHER and Wolf STADT

MAUA-7777

1. The following information from the files of the Vienna Station concerning Kurt Fischer, is submitted in reply to your request for traces on "K.F.S." from Kurt Fischer who was being considered for operational use by this station in 1950 but at present we have no interest. London's files contain no trace of material on him.

Fischer: compiled from London air mail documents, dated 1948, describes as follows: born June 3, 1898 at Leithenitz, Salzburg, married Herta (neé Kirsch), no children. Wife is a doctor of medicine, likes to write, Austria. Nationality is Austrian. Religion is now Catholic. Occupation: height 5' 8"; complexion fair tan; weight approximately 180 pounds; big head, large pointed nose; long nose, like forehead, blue eyes, dark blond coarse hair; exact military posture; speech is slow, precise, professional in manner. Languages known are German, French, English, Czech. Health is delicate; he has gall stones, two stomach ulcers, and only one lung.

Professional soldier; served in 1st and 2nd Austrian Army; became Oberleutnant. After war-time attended University of Vienna. Discharged at by 1939 and director of Army Institute of Sciences at Vienna. Association of Fischer with Nazis by reason of his collaboration and division from section. The reason was that he was a member of the anti-Nazi "Schubert" and immunity of blood" (grandfather Jewish). With German invasion of Poland, called back into army as a private. Was commissioned and taken into Wehrmacht through assistance of old friend Oberst (later General) v. Lichtenau, Chief, Abwehr II. By 1941 he was a Major.

Abwehr II in April, 1944 was headed by Oberst Dr. von Freytag, close friend of the family. Dr. v. S. was commissioned by Freytag to organize the Leitstelle II and set up headquarters at Vienna.
